3. Seeking anticipatory bail, these petitioners, who are arrayed as A2 and A3 is before this Court.

4. Heard both sides.

5. The earlier anticipatory bail applications were dismissed by this Court on the ground that there was amputation of the legs, because of injuries inflicted upon the defacto complainant.

7. But however, on the earlier occasion the learned Additional Public Prosecutor has produced the photographs showing the nature of the injuries to the defacto complainant, wherein we find that both legs have been severally assaulted and broken. The direction of this Court was not complied with by the petitioners so far.
