Additional Public Prosecutor

PETITION FOR BAIL Under Sec.439 of Cr.P.C.

PRAYER :-

For Bail in Crime No.743 of 2022 on the file of the Respondent Police.

ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner /A6, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 12.08.2022 for the offence under section 8(c), 20(b)(ii)(c), 29(1) of Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 in Crime No.743 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police seeks bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 12.08.2022, at about 13.15 hours, based on a secret information, the respondent at about 13.45 hours, had gone near the Vaigai Vadagarai Service Road. On suspicion, they had stopped A1 to A6 and at that time, all the accused tried to escape from the scene of occurrence, however, the respondent police caught them and explained about the statutory right of being search before Magistrate and the first accused, came forward and gave voluntary confession statement that she was in possession of 22.500 kgs of ganja. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that totally there are six accused and the petitioner herein arrayed neighbors and a murder case also pending. Therefore, on the family members already sent representation to all the authorities concerned for consideration. Hence, the respondent police apprehended that there was high chances of retaliation and hence, the present case came to be registered. At the time of occurrence, there was no recovery from the petitioner. Even according to the prosecution, the contraband recovered only from A1. All the occurrences were recorded in the CCTV. Though the petitioner and other accused applied before RTI about CCTV footages, the respondent police and other officials denied to give the same. So far as the previous case is concerned, she admitted the case related to TNPDLL Act and paid fine. Now, she is suffering from breathing problem and she was admitted in the hospital for 2 days. That apart, now investigation completed and final report also filed, which was taken cognizance in C.C.No.107 of 2023 and the same is pending for trial. He would further submit that the petitioner has been implicated only based on the confession statement of the co-accused and it cannot be relied upon and sought for bail to the petitioner. In support of his contention, he relied upon the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India.

4.Per contra, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police would submit that A1 to A6 were in illegal possession of 22.500 kgs of ganja. The family members of the petitioner doing this business as family business and the petitioner was in possession along with other accused. Now, charge sheet filed and case is pending for trial. Therefore, he vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6.Admittedly, the petitioner and other accused were in constructive and conscious possession of 22.500 kgs of ganja. It is seen that this is second bail petition and the earlier bail petition was withdrawn. That apart, the petitioner failed to satisfy the twin conditions as contemplated under Section 37 of NDPS Act. Hence, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, this criminal original petition is dismissed. If at all the petitioner is having any health issues, the same may be taken care by the concerned authorities by giving proper treatment to her.
