(Order of the Court was made by M.S.RAMESH,J.)

The petitioner is the wife of the detenu viz., Satheesh, S/o.Thangadurai, aged about 40 years. The detenu has been detained by the second respondent by his order in Detention Order No.109/2022, dated 09.12.2022, holding him to be a "Drug Offender", as contemplated under Section 2(e) of Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982. 2.We have heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents. We have also perused the records produced by the Detaining Authority.

3. Though the learned counsel for the petitioner has raised several other grounds to assail the order of detention, he has mainly focused his argument on the ground that the copy of the remand order has not been furnished to the detenu, despite the same has been sought for by the petitioner in her representation. Therefore, on the sole ground, the detention order is liable to be quashed.

4. On consideration of the submissions made on either side and upon perusal of the documents available on record, especially, the representation made by the petitioner dated 16.03.2023, she had sought for the remand order, however, the same has not been furnished to the detenu, which vitiates the order of detention.

5. In the result, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the order of detention in Detention Order No.109/2022, dated 09.12.2022 passed by the second respondent is set aside. The detenu, viz., Satheesh,
