COMMON ORDER

2. The case on hand pertains to the post of Assistant Engineer (Industries). The writ petitioners are eligible candidates waiting in the open market. The petitioners challenge the impugned communication which proposes to fill up vacancies by transferring in-service candidates.

3. My attention is drawn to the second proviso to Rule 2(c) of Special Rules of Tamil Nadu Industries Subordinate Services. It reads as follows:-

“(f) The post of Assistant Engineer (Industries) has the following methods of appointment:

Method of appointment		Qualification

By promotion from among the holders of the posts of Foreman (Engineering) Gr-II and Mechanical Draughtsman Gr-II and Foreman Assistant in CTAL, Guindy	i)	Must possess a Bachelor of Engineering or Bachelor of Technology degree of any discipline except Civil Engineering and Architectural Engineering of any University recognised by the University Grants Commission or Institution recognised by the All India Council for Technical Education.
	ii)	Must have put in service for a total period of not less than two years in the posts of Foreman (Engineering) Gr-II and Mechanical Draughts Gr-II and Foreman Assistant in CTAL, Guindy.

2. By Direct Recruitment or	iii)	Must possess a Bachelor of Engineering or Bachelor of Technology degree of any discipline except Civil Engineering and Architectural Engineering of any University recognised by the University Grants Commission or Institution recognised by the All India Council for Technical Education and

4. Rule 2(c) of the Special Rules is as follows:-

“Notwithstanding anything in rule 6 of General Rules for Tamil Nadu State and Subordinate Service out of every three vacancies, the first vacancy shall be filled or reserved to be filled by direct recruitment and the next two vacancies should be filled in or reserved to be filled by promotion.”

5. It can be seen therefrom that the vacancies will have to be filled up in the ratio of 1:2. In other words, 33% vacancies will have to be filled up by way of direct recruitment while the remaining vacancies will have to be filled up by way of transfer. The learned Additional Government Pleader submitted that out of 57 vacancies, 19 vacancies have been earmarked for being filled up by way of direct recruitment. The rights of the petitioners are protected. There is no need to interfere with the impugned communication regarding the stand of the respondents. These writ petitions stand disposed of. No costs.
