the petitioner's retirement benefits such as Gratuity and Earned Leave and sanction the balance amount of Gratuity and Earned Leave Salary at the rate of 12 percent Dearness Allowance along with 6 percent interest per annum to the petitioner within the time limit that may be fixed by this Court.

Additional Government Pleader for R.1

Mr.K.Jagadees Balan
Standing Counsel for R.2 & R.3

ORDER

Heard the learned counsel on either side.

2.The writ petitioner was working as Traffic Inspector in the respondent corporation. He joined service on 04.06.1985 and retired on 30.04.2019. It appears that the terminal benefits were computed by taking the dearness allowance as 9% instead of 12%. There is no dispute that an error in computation had taken place. Therefore, the respondents are directed to rework the petitioner's terminal benefits by taking his dearness allowance as 12%. In similar matters I had directed the Management to pay interest. The learned Standing Counsel would submit that when the petitioner has belatedly approached the Court, the Management ought not to be settled for direction to pay interest. I find the said contention to be acceptable. The Management shall pay the amount now quantified within a period of four months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

3.This writ petition is allowed on these terms. There shall be no order as to costs.
