Acquisition proceedings and seek her claim to get either compensation in entirety or a share of compensation only before that particular Court.

3. The petitioner may file a necessary application to implead on or before 06.04.2023 and the learned Principal District Judge, may consider it in the manner known to law, including on the ground of maintainability and on the ground of eligibility of the petitioner's claim. Till 06.04.2023, if the amount had not been already disbursed by the learned Principal District Judge, let no further orders be passed.

4. With the above direction, the Writ Petition stands disposed of even without issuing notice to the third respondent. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
