ORDER

The revision has been filed as against the order passed in Cr.M.P.No.6653 of 2017, dated 24.07.2017 on the file of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Valliyoor, thereby dismissing the private complaint filed under Section 200 of Cr.P.C.

2.The petitioner lodged a private complaint with the allegation that the respondents trespassed into their house on 16.09.2016, when her son was alone in the house and damaged the household articles. They also threatened him with dire consequences and scolded him with filthy language.

3.Heard the learned counsel appearing on either side and perused the materials available on record.

4.On perusal of the records revealed that the petitioner's husband was suspended by the Secretary of Palavur Primary Co-operative Society, in which, charge-memo was served on the petitioner's husband. In order to escape from the clutches of law, the petitioner lodged a complaint. In fact, the petitioner has already filed a petition for direction under Section 156(3) of Cr.P.C, in which, the Court below directed the Inspector of Police to conduct enquiry and submit a report. After enquiry, the Inspector of Police reported that no allegations are made out to attract any of the offence alleged by the petitioner. After examining the petitioner and on perusal of the petitioner's documents Ex.P.1 to P.7, the learned Magistrate rightly dismissed the complaint and this Court finds no infirmity or illegality in the order passed by the Court below. Accordingly, this Criminal Revision Case is dismissed.
