ORDER

Heard the learned counsel on either side.

2. The writ petitioner served the department of medical and rural health service for almost 30 years. He reached the age of superannuation on 28.06.2019. He was permitted to retire. He is receiving pension. All other benefits except DCRG have been settled. He submitted petition dated 01.03.2023 for release of DCRG benefits. Since it was not considered, the present writ petition came to be filed.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner reiterated all the contentions set out in the affidavit filed in support of the writ petition and called upon this Court to allow the writ petition as prayed for.

4. The third respondent has filed counter-affidavit and it is claimed that the petitioner is responsible for having cause substantial loss to the Government and that action is proposed to be initiated against the petitioner. That was a reason for withholding the petitioner's DCRG. He pressed for dismissal of the writ petition.

W.P(MD)No.8432 of 2023

5. I carefully considered the rival contentions and went through the materials on record. Rule 69 of Tamil Nadu Pension Rules states that no gratuity shall be paid to the government servant until the conclusion of the departmental or judicial proceedings and issue of final orders thereon. But in this case, no charge memo was issued against the petitioner. He was allowed to retire. No action has been taken till date under the Pension Rules. As on date, no proceedings have been initiated against the petitioner. It is illegal to withhold the petitioner's DCRG.

6. I have taken the very same view vide order dated 27.04.2023 in W.P.(MD)No.6746 of 2023. The respondents 2 & 3 are directed to disburse DCRG benefits to the petitioner within a period of eight weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. DCRG shall be paid to the petitioner with 6% interest per annum.

7. The Writ Petition is allowed accordingly. No costs.
