3. Mr.B.Nambiselvan, learned Additional Public Prosecutor, accepts notice for the respondents 1 and 2. He would further submitted that an earlier application was dismissed by this Court.

4. The earlier application was dismissed on the ground that the petitioner is facing 17 cases out of which most of cases are either under Mines and Minerals(Development and Regulation) Act, violation or under IPC. Now this petition has been filed without any change of circumstances. I find no reason to entertain this petition without any change of circumstances.

5. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner's name is not mentioned in the FIR.

6. But however the conduct and bad antecedents of the petitioner was taken into account while dismissing the earlier petition. Since, no new grounds has been made, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
