never interfered with the practice of the petitioner and no complaint was made as against this petitioner and no coercive steps are taken as against this petitioner.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner contended that the petitioner is not residing in the address but she is running the clinic in the above said address and the respondent police are interfering with the practice of the petitioner and already this Court has passed order in the similar writ petition and he has also produced copy of the judgment passed by this Court in W.P.Nos.10920 and 10921 of 2017, wherein this Court has held that :

4. In the light of the said assurance given in the affidavit filed in support of the writ petitions, both the writ petitions are disposed of, directing the respondents to permit the petitioners to practice in their respective field alone. So long as the petitioners are practicing in their respective mode of medicine, the respondents and their police officials are restrained from initiating any action against them. However, it is open to the respondents or their officials to verify and find out whether the petitioners are practicing in other fields, viz., Ayurveda, Siddha, Unani, Allopathy etc., and if the petitioners are practicing in such fields, it is open to the police officials to initiate action against such of the petitioners in accordance with law. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
