2. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) has submitted a status report stating that the Police have completed the investigation and prepared the final report and made two attempts to serve notice to the defacto complainant, but, he refused, on which, notice has ultimately sent by Registered Post with acknowledgement due and thereby, they are prepared to file a final report before the concerned Magistrate Court within a period of one week and a report called for from the concerned Court, indicates that the charge sheet has not been filed.

3. Since investigation has already been completed and Police is intending to file final report, there is no purpose in keeping this petition pending any more.
