4.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is ready to give a fresh representation.

5. I have considered the submission of the learned counsel appearing for the writ petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondents.

6. In view of the submission made by either side, on the basis of the representation to be given by the petitioner, the jurisdictional police may consider the petitioner's representation and dispose of the same on merits. If the petitioner is aggrieved by the result, he may work out his remedy through appropriate proceedings.

7. With the above direction, this Writ Petition stands disposed of.
No costs.
