payment order. Their contribution under the EPF scheme, was remitted on wage ceiling, however, not on actual wages. It is their case that the Apex Court has directed the Regional Provident Fund Commissioner to permit the members to seek the return of all amounts that the employees may have taken or withdrawn before granting the benefit of the proviso to clause 11(3) of the Pension Scheme. Accordingly, it is the case of the petitioners as per the direction of the Apex Court, the petitioners are entitled for revised pension and hence, prays for appropriate direction.

3. The learned counsel for the respondents would submit that after disposal of the Special Leave Petitions by the Apex Court, the respondents are calculating to disburse the amount in favour of the employees and the entire amount will be disbursed in favour of the employees in terms of the order passed in the SLPs by the Apex Court within a period of four weeks.

4. In view of the fair submission made by the learned counsel for the respondents, the second respondent is directed to settle the entire amount as directed by the Apex Court in S.L.P.Nos.10013 to 10014 of 2016, within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this
