PETITION FOR ANTICIPATORY BAIL Under Sec.438 of Cr.P.C

PRAYER :- For Anticipatory Bail in Crime No.144 of 2023 on the file of the Respondent Police.

ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners/Accused, apprehending arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 506(i) I.P.C, in Crime No.144 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is the husband of the first petitioner and the second petitioner is the father-in-law of the defacto complainant. There was a family dispute between the parties, in H.M.O.P.102 of 2023, as per the order of Family Judge, Dindigul, a mediation was took place on 25.04.2023. During the mediation, the first petitioner had abused and assaulted the defacto complainant and also threatened him, while coming out of the Court campus. Hence, the complaint.

3. On the side of petitioners, it is stated that the petitioners are innocent and had not committed any offence, as alleged by the prosecution. The injured has already been discharged from the hospital. Hence, prays to release the petitioners on anticipatory bail.

4. On the side of prosecution, it is stated that a family dispute between the husband and wife, the said occurrence took place. In this case, the injured has been discharged from the hospital. There is no previous case pending against the petitioners.

5. Considering the family dispute between the parties and considering that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and that the petitioners are not having any previous case at their credit, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, No.2, Dindigul, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further conditions that:

(a) the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the learned Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhaar card or bank pass book to ensure their identity;

(b) the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 am for a period of one month and thereafter, as and when required for interrogation.

(c) the petitioners shall not tamper with the evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

(d) the petitioners shall be present before the Court on hearing dates and before the respondent police as and when required;

(e) on breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/ Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law, as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji Vs. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560]; and;

(f) if the accused/ petitioners thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229-A IPC.
