ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner/Accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Section 306 IPC in Crime No.214 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that there was a property dispute between the husband of the de-facto complainant namely Raja and his brother. On 24.04.2023, the de-facto complainant's brother-in-law/A1 came in the house with drunken mode and attacked the de-facto complainant. Hence, the said Raja went to the police station, during that time, the Sub-Inspector of Police ill-treated the said Raja and advised him to solve the family property dispute amicably. Due to the said mental agony, the said Raja committed suicide on 28.04.2023 in front of the respondent police station.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would state that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed for anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent raised objection stating that the occurrence was taken place on 28.04.2023 and the investigation is still pending.

5.Considering the facts that there existed property dispute between the family members and also the fact that the investigation is in initial stage, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
