2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant's version, she was in affair with one Suryaprakash who is the petitioner's husband now. Later he performed marriage with this petitioner. When that was questioned by the defacto complainant, the petitioner alleged to have scolded the defacto complainant through phone. On the basis of the occurrence, this case was registered.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent, she has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and she has been falsely implicated in this case.

4. Learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that there was a issue between the petitioner's husband who is the first Accused in this case and the defacto complainant.

5. Considering the limited role played by the petitioner, interim anticipatory bail was granted by this Court during the vacation Court. I find no development in this case and the interim anticipatory bail granted to the petitioner is made absolute and this Court.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, before the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Orathanadu, Thanjavur District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees
