2. According to the learned Counsel appearing for the writ petitioner, she had appeared for the TNTET examination on 03.02.2023. Tentative key answers were published on 21.02.2023. She had lodged her objections to the tentative key answers and ultimately final key answers were published on 28.03.2023. According to the petitioner, as per final key answers, the petitioner could have secured 86 marks. However only 81 marks have been awarded.

3. The learned Additional Advocate General appearing for the respondents herein pointed out that after publication of final key answers, certain objections were considered by the experts and a revised final key was published. Even as per the revised final key answers, the petitioner has secured only 81 marks and therefore, the request of the petitioner cannot be considered.

4. In view of the above said submissions made by the respondents herein, this Court is not in a position to issue a Mandamus directing them to issue a revised mark statement to the writ petitioner.
