2.The case of the prosecution is that due to land dispute the petitioner herein abused and attacked the defacto complainant, hence the case.

3. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

4. It is seen from the Accident Register that the defacto complainant sustained grievous injuries and hence custodial interrogation of the petitioner is very much required. Further this is the fifth application for bail. There is no change in circumstances of the case to consider the anticipatory bail petition even after dismissal of the petitions. Hence, this Court is not inclined to entertain this petition. Let the petitioner surrender before the concerned Court and seek regular bail.

5. Hence the petition stands dismissed.
