4.It is of course open to the respondent authority to initiate confiscation proceedings. In this case, this Court is concerned only with the issue of granting interim custody of the vehicle to the petitioner. No purpose will be served in keeping the vehicle under the custody of the respondents.

5. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the decision reported in (2002) 10 SCC 283 (Sunderbhai Ambalal Desai and Others V. State of Gujarat) has held as follows:-

“17.In our view, whatever be the situation, it is of no use to keep such seized vehicles at the police stations for a long period. It is for the Magistrate to pass appropriate orders immediately by taking appropriate bond and guarantee as well as security for return of the said vehicles, if required at any point of time. This can be done pending hearing of applications for return of such vehicles.”

6.Therefore, the first respondent is directed to grant interim custody of the said vehicle to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:-
