This Criminal Original Petition has been filed, invoking Section 482 Cr.P.C., seeking orders, to direct the first respondent to transfer the investigation of the complaint, dated 25.04.2023 on the file of the second respondent and entrusted the same to any other competent officer on the basis of the petitioner's representation.

2. When the matter is taken up for hearing today, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the State would submit that the alleged incident was occurred at Thuvrankurichi and that the second respondent is not having any jurisdiction.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that after lodging the complaint, the petitioner was directed to appear before the second respondent twice and they have also directed him to appear on Monday i.e., on 19.06.2023.

4. Considering the above, this Court is at loss to understand that when the second respondent is not having any jurisdiction, then for what purpose, they have directed the petitioner to appear before them thrice.
