<https://www.mhc.tn.gov.in/judis> Heard both side and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

4. It is seen that even according to the case of prosecution the first accused had lend money to the defacto complainant and thereafter the defacto complainant failed to repay the same, when the same was demanded by the first accused there was a quarrel in which the petitioner also sustained injuries. Taking into consideration all the above facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, with certain conditions:

5. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Trichy on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
