3. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

4. It is seen that petitioner herein fell in love with the victim and thereafter through video call threatened the victim to remove her dress and he has also videographed the same and subsequently he had posted the same in the whatsapp and social media. Now a days these types of offences are growing like mushroom and the petitioner has committed a very serious and heinous offence as against the minor victim girl, hence this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. In the result, the petition stands dismissed.
