3.It is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that earlier also the respondent No.4 has attacked the mother of the petitioner, on which a case has been registered. It is also submitted that in all there are 10 cases registered against the respondent No.4 and since the respondent No.4 has been threatening the petitioner and his family members, the petitioner sought for a direction to the respondent police to provide suitable protection.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) on the other hand submits that on account of the property dispute between the petitioner and the respondent No.4, disputes arose between them and on a complaint given by the respondent No.4 against the petitioner, one criminal case has been registered and one CSR has been registered. It is further submitted that only yesterday, summon has been issued to the petitioner to appear before the police concerned to consider his request for providing suitable protection, however, the petitioner has requested time to appear before the respondent police tomorrow ie., 15.07.2023. It is also submitted by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) that soon after the completion of the enquiry in the representation given by the petitioner, the police
