2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is the wife of this petitioner. On the date of occurrence, she was tried to be assaulted with Aruval, she escaped from the assault and the petitioner snatched the mobile phone and Rs.5,000/-. Hence, the complaint.

3. On 04.07.2023 the petitioner was directed by this Court to inform the custody of the articles as well as the money.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is not having the above said articles and money. Further he would submit that false complaint has been foisted by the defacto complainant.

5. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent Police submitted that it is the matrimonial issue and there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and injured has been discharged from the hospital.

6. Considering the fact and circumstance of this case and considering that injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, before the
