contemnor/respondent and punish him for his willful disobedience of the false statement made in Crl.O.P(MD)No.4923 of 2023, dated 15.03.2023.

2. On the basis of wrong representation or mis-representation made by the respondent, this petition has been filed.

3. On coming to know about the mistake, which has been committed by the respondent before this Court, he was directed to file an apology affidavit. On that basis, now the above said affidavit has been filed.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that inspite of repeated approaches made by the petitioner before the respondent, no proper reply has been given. This caused him to file the present Contempt Petition.

5. Since, now the petitioner received notice from the concerned trial Court, he may workout his remedy through appropriate proceedings before the concerned trial Court.
