CRL OP(MD). No.12504 of 2023

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 13.06.2023, the defacto complainant after attending the temple festival, returned to home for having lunch. At that time, the accused persons waylaid him and abused him in filthy language and also attacked. When the same was questioned, they pulled down his mother and snatched his gold chain and ring. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Already the co-accused in this has been granted anticipatory bail.

4. For production of the above said order copy, this petition has been posted today. The learned counsel for the petitioner produced the copy of the order passed in CrI.M.P.No.2129 of 2023 by the Principal District and Sessions Judge, Pudukottai, wherein, the co-accused have been enlarged on anticipatory bail. So far as theft of articles is concerned, no recovery has been made till now. But even as per the FIR, the allegation is made only against the above said Munis, who was enlarged on anticipatory bail.

5. Considering the above said facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, before the
