The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 294(b), 323, and 506(ii), in Crime No.166 of 2022, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to land dispute, on 04.07.2023 at about 09.00 p.m., the petitioners along with other accused went to the defacto complainant house, abused the defacto complainant and his family members in filthy language and also attacked them with hands and woodenlog and caused injurious to them. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4. The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submits that no previous case is pending against the petitioners and also submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5.Considering the facts and the circumstances of this case and the injured person has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, however, with stringent conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or their appearance, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Illupur, and on his
