2. The case of the prosecution is that the first accused had love affair with the defacto complainant and later he refused to marry her, the defacto complainant questioned the same. At that time, at the instance of the first accused, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant and also assaulted her. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent and she has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that first accused was arrested and thereafter, he was released on bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submits that the final report has been filed before the Additional Mahila Court, Dindigul and the same was taken on file in C.C.No.55 of 2014. He further submitted that at the instance of the first accused, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also threatened her.

5.Considering the facts and the circumstances of this case, considering the limited role that has been played by the petitioner and also the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, however, with stringent conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of
