CRL OP(MD) No.12747 of 2023

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, during the course of temple festival, the petitioners along with other accused abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also attacked him with hands and also threatened him with dire consequences. The further allegation is that at the time of occurrence, the defacto complainant's gold chain was missing. Therefore, the present case came to be registered.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that in respect of the very same occurrence, FIR in Crime No.248 of 2023 has been registered against the defacto complainant and others.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submits that no previous case is pending against the petitioners and also submitted that the injured has been treated as out patient. He further submitted that it is a case in counter case.

5.Considering the facts and the circumstances of this case and also of the fact that it is a case in counter and the injured person has been treated as out patient, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners, however, with stringent conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or their appearance, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court,

Sankarankovil, Tenkasi District, and on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each, with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned; and the petitioners shall appear before the respondent police on every Saturday at 10.30 am until further orders. The petitioner shall comply with the conditions stipulated under Section 438 Cr.P.C. scrupulously.

7.The petitioners shall appear before the concerned Magistrate within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail stands dismissed.
