The petitioners/Accused, apprehending arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 506 (i) of I.P.C and Section 4 of TNPHW Act, in Crime No.688 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 06.07.2023, the accused persons had abused and assaulted the defacto complainant and also threatened her with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent and a false case was foisted against them, since there was a previous enmity between the parties. The injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, prays to release them on anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) submitted that in this case, though the injured has been discharged from the hospital and the petitioners are not having any previous case at their credit, the accused persons abused and assaulted the defacto complainant. Hence, prays to dismiss the petition.

5.Heard the learned counsel appearing on either side and perused the materials placed before this Court.

6.Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and that
