Police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner came to the shop of the defacto complainant and threatened the defacto complainant showing knife and broken the showcase glass by arual and also assaulted him with empty bottle. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that this the second anticipatory bail petition, earlier anticipatory bail Petition filed by the petitioner in Crl.OP(MD)No.11378 of 2023 was dismissed by this Court, on the ground that the petitioner is having four previous cases. He further submitted that this second anticipatory bail petition was filed mainly on the ground that the petitioner's name was not found in the FIR and based upon the confession statement of the co-accused, the petitioner's name was included in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that without any valid ground, the present petition has been filed by the petitioner. He further submitted that the petitioner along with some other persons regularly involved this kind of activities in the near by areas.

5. Considering the fact that there is no change of circumstances and this Court
