The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 294(B), 323, 354, 392 of IPC and Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Prevention of Harassment of Women Act, in Crime No.177 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to money dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, the petitioner along with the other accused waylaid the defacto complainant and robbed his mobile phone and 7 sovereign chain and Rs.50,000/-. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that due to previous enmity, the present complaint has been given by the defacto complainant and also submitted that four persons were arrested and thereafter released on bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submits that no previous case is pending against the petitioners and as per the statement of the co-accused, no allegation has been made by the petitioners.

5.Considering the facts and the circumstances of this case and also the fact that no previous case is pending against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, however, with stringent conditions.
