2. The case of the prosecution is that on 18.06.2023, due to previous enmity, the petitioners and other accused trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant, abused him using filthy language, attacked with wooden logs and hands and also criminally intimidated the defacto complainant with dire consequences. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. They have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, seek for the relief of anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) would submit that it is a continuous occurrence between the defacto complainant and the accused persons, with regard to the first occurrence and that has been compromised between the parties and later the present occurrence stated to be settled.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances and the fact that it is a continuous issue between the parties and the first occurrence was also compromised between them, this Court is inclined to grant relief to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.V, Trichy, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two
