No. 196 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the de-facto complainant is that due to property dispute, petitioners herein abused and assaulted the defacto complainant with woodenlog and also threatened him with dire consequences. Hence the case.

3. Heard both side and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that due to previous enmity, the present complaint has been given by the defacto complainant.

5. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police submitted that it is a case in counter case and no previous case is pending against the petitioners.

6. Considering the facts and the circumstance of this case and also the fact that it is a case in counter case and no previous case is pending against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or their appearance, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Peravurani, and on
