2. When the matter was called today, the learned Additional Advocate General appearing on behalf of the State made a submission that the survey was conducted and encroachments were identified. He further submitted that actions are already in progress and encroachments will be removed by following the procedures and by affording opportunity to the encroachers.

3. Since the petitioner is absent on two occasions, the Writ Petition stands dismissed for non-prosecution and the official respondents are directed to proceed with the actions in the manner known to law. There shall be no order as to costs.
