ORDER

This writ petition has been filed for the issue of a writ of mandamus directing the respondents to top up the loan of the petitioner based on the representation dated 29.07.2020.

2. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner.

3. The case of the petitioner is that he is doing milk business and he had borrowed housing loan from the third respondent. According to the petitioner, he had sought for additional loan amount from the third respondent in order to expand his business and in order to counter the loss that was suffered by the petitioner during the COVID-19 pandemic, the petitioner made a representation in this regard to the respondent bank. Since the same was not considered, the present writ petition has been filed for the aforesaid relief.

4. In the considered view of this court, the petitioner does not have any legal right to seek for any additional loan. In the absence of any legal right and a corresponding legal duty, this Court cannot issue a writ of mandamus. This Court does not find any merit in this writ petition. Accordingly, this writ petition stands dismissed. No costs.
