3. Heard both sides and perused the materials available in the record.

4. It is seen that this is third petition for anticipatory bail without any change of circumstances. Further it is submitted that on the date of occurrence, the third accused was arrested on the spot along with contraband and based on the confession statement of him only, involvement of this petitioner came to be light. Even though it has been submitted by the petitioner that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner, considering that there is no change in circumstances. Therefore, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, this criminal original petition is dismissed.
