2. Expressing grievance over the compliance of the portion of the order, petition has been filed by the defacto complainant stating that even though the accused persons have paid Rs.10 lakhs to him as per the order of this Court, with regard to the deposit of title document to the value of Rs.50 lakhs, has not been complied.

3. The counsel for the respondents 1 and 2/accused would submit that seeking extension of time for complying the condition of deposit of title deed, they have filed petition in Crl.M.P.(MD).No.10429 of 2023. On 21.07.2023, the time was extended for fifteen days. Even at that time, it was informed the Court that the condition must be complied before the trial Court without fail. But, the trial Court returned the above said document stating that proper Valuation Certificate must be obtained from the competent authority, that was also considered by this Court. Time was extended.

4. On expiry of the above said time, again this petition has been filed. In view of the above, the time already granted to the accused persons to comply the condition is extended further period of One week from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.
