Crime No.91 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 15.07.2023 the accused had transported four units of rough stone without valid permit. Therefore, the present case came to be registered.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, prays to release him on anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent police submitted that though the petitioner is not having any previous case, the accused persons had transported mineral without valid permit. Hence, prays to dismiss the petition.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing on either side and perused the materials placed before this Court.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that the petitioner is not having any previous case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Shenkottai, on condition that the petitioner
