3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that he is innocent and not committed any offence, as alleged by the prosecution. He was implicated in this case, based on the confession of co-accused. The co-accused has already been enlarged on bail. Hence, prays to release him on anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) submitted that the petitioner is having eight previous cases to his credit. In which, most of the cases were registered for robbery, assault and theft. Only the petitioner had supplied ganja to A1. Hence, prayed to dismiss the petition.

5.Heard the learned counsel appearing on either side and perused the materials placed before this Court.

6.Considering the nature of the case and considering the bad antecedents of the petitioner, he seems to be a habitual offender. Hence, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to him.

7.Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.
