The petitioner/ Accused apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences under Sections 406 and 420 of IPC and Section 66(D) of the Information Technology Act, 2000, in Crime No.8 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is running a matrimony agency, the defacto complainants approached the petitioner's company and sent Rs.3,500/- along with profile. By cheated the defacto complainants. Hence the complaints.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that she is an innocent, she has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) would submit that eventhough cases are pending against the petitioner in eleven districts, all those cases have been settled by the petitioner. He has also circulated a list of the cases and details of the closure.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of this case and also the fact that all the previous cases against the petitioner have been closed, this Court is inclined to grant relief to the petitioner.
