2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that there was a village meeting on 31.07.2022 and at that time he went to the meeting. On seeing him the accused persons asked him why he came over there, abused and also assaulted him with hands and legs. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and a false complaint has been foisted against him, due to previous enmity. The Injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, prays to release the petitioner on anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) submitted that the accused had abused and assaulted the defacto complainant. In this case, though the petitioner is not having any previous case at his credit and the injured has been discharged, the investigation is not yet completed. Hence, prays to dismiss the petition.

5.Heard the learned counsel appearing on either side and perused the materials placed before this Court.

6.Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and the petitioner is not having any previous case at his credit, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
