respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Section 379 IPC r/w 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957, in Crime No.284 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 11.06.2023 the accused persons had transported one unit red sand in the vehicle. Therefore, the present case came to be registered.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent and not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The co-accused has already been enlarged on anticipatory bail. Hence, prays to release him on anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent police submitted that though the petitioner is not having any previous case, the accused persons had transported mineral without valid permit. Hence, prays to dismiss the petition.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing on either side and perused the materials placed before this Court.

6. Considering the facts that the petitioner is not having any previous case and the co-accused has already been enlarged on bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
