police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 506(ii) of IPC and Section 4 of TNPWH Act, in Crime No.141 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to land dispute, the petitioner along with another accused person, made assault upon the defacto complainant and abused her in filthy language. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent police submitted that the first accused in this has been arrested and released on bail. This petitioner is A2. There is land dispute between the parties. There is no previous case against the petitioner. The injured person has been discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering the nature of offence, the injured person has been discharged from the hospital, there is no previous case against the petitioner and the co-accused have been released on bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
