The petitioners, apprehending arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 506(i) and 427 of IPC, in Crime No.204 of 2023 on the file of the respondent Police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, in a drunken mood, the petitioners along with the other accused attacked the defacto complainant and also damaged his vehicle. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that due to previous enmity, a false case has been given against the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that no previous is pending against the petitioners and the injured has been discharged from the hospital. He further submitted that the petitioners along with the other accused in a drunken mood, attacked the defacto complainant and also damaged his vehicle, its worth about Rs.5,000/-.

5. Considering the nature of offence and no previous case is pending against the petitioners and the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petitions are allowed and the petitioners
