ORDER

The writ petition has been filed challenging the direct payment that was ordered by the first respondent in his proceedings dated 02.06.2014.

3.Today, the learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has stopped running the classes 6 to 8 and therefore, there is no necessity for recognition and for the approval of secretaryship, the petitioner school shall make a fresh application.

4.Considering the statement made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner school is permitted to make a fresh application for approval of
