2. The case of the prosecution in defacto complainant's version is that the defacto complainant received information from his wife stating that the neighbor Lakshmi attacked his mother and she was taken to the hospital. Over the above said occurrence, information was given to the Palakarai Police Station and his mother was admitted in Government Hospital, Puthur. At about 2.15 p.m., on that date, the accused came to the hospital with knife, caused assault to him and his wife and criminally intimidated them. Later, they came to know, on enquiry, about the names of the accused, over which, this case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that only on coming to know that the said Lakshmi has attacked the mother of the defacto complainant, the petitioner and others went for making compromise talk with the defacto complainant in the hospital and except that they did not indulge in such sort of illegal activities.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that even as per the allegation made in the First Information Report, the petitioner and others went to the Government Hospital with knife and caused assault. It is the serious issue. Hence, he makes strong objection to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above said factual aspects and considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant

The petitioners shall comply with the condition stipulated under Section 438 Cr.P.C. scrupulously.
