CRL OP(MD). No.14349 of 2023

of Women Act, 2002, in Crime No.85 of 2023 on the file of the respondent Police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is running a hotel near Pallapatti. On 07.05.2023, when the defacto complainant closed the hotel at 12.00 a.m., the petitioners asked water bottle and plastic cups. For that the defacto complainant replied that, hotel and shops are closed and unable to given things. For that all the accused persons quarreled with the defacto complainant and others, attacked them, scolding them using filthy langugae and in the result, they sustained injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and is no way connected in this cae.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent Police submitted that co-accused has been released on either regular bail or anticipatory bail and there is no damage caused by the petitioners. There are four injured persons in the above said occurrence.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of this case and considering the fact that the co-accused has been released on either regular bail or anticipatory bail and injured have been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
