2.The case of the prosecution is that when the police party visited the place of occurrence, the accused persons found in possession of 365 gms. of ganja. Hence, the case.

3.Earlier applications filed by the petitioner was dismissed by this Court on the ground that though the petitioner is a college going student, has not attended the college regularly. Considering the seriousness of the offence also, that petition was dismissed.

4.Now this petition has been filed on the ground that co-accused in this case has been released on bail.

5.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that there is no change of circumstances.

6.Even though the counsel for the petitioner submitted that the co-accused was arrested and released on bail, that cannot be extended to the this petitioner. There is no change of circumstances to entertain this petition.

7.Accordingly, this criminal original petition stands dismissed.
