2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a property dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant. The petitioner's are in-laws of the defacto complainant. On 23.07.2023, the accused persons came to the defacto complainant's house, scolded her in filthy language, attacked with iron rod and caused injuries and criminally threatened her with dire consequences. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocents, they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. They have been falsely implicated in this case. They seek for the relief of anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that a quarrel arose between the family members over a property dispute. A counter case also came to be registered in Crime No.142 of 2023. No previous case is pending against the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of this case and also the fact that a trouble arose over a property dispute, this Court is inclined to grant relief to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thirumangalam, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that the petitioners shall appear before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders. The petitioners shall comply with the condition stipulated under Section 438 Cr.P.C. scrupulously.

7. The petitioners shall appear before the concerned Magistrate within a period of 15 days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail will stand dismissed.
